SPORTS KORNER – "KICKS IN THE GRASS"

Happy Father's Day to all the dad's out there. Thanks for supporting all our boys and girls throughout the year! Our sports program appreciates you guys!

The past few weeks have seen three teams do extremely well in the EPYSA State Cups; our U15 boys coached by Glen Jaskewicz and Scott Rieber won the President's Cup in the final 4-1, they will advance to the Region I championship round the weekend of June 14th in West Virginia; our U16 boys coached by Tom Kehan, Bill Corely, and Mike Christian advance to the Challenge Cup finals on June 1st; and our U12 boys coached by Billy Hartman also advance to the Challenge Cup finals the same day. All in all, an outstanding achievement by our teams this cup season. Our Ratskeller can never have enough trophies!

Our Majors are still active in their league and have several games to make up. They currently sit in 2nd place behind West Chester. VEs Over-30 team reached the final of the state cup losing to Phoenix by a score of 3-0. Good work guys!

VE Soccer Camp is currently accepting campers. To register, go to VESoccer.org. Spots fill up quick so please don't wait.

Next sports meeting is May 31st. Special guest speaker is Mike Barr from EPYSA. Please attend.

This years' event was the 25th Annual Golf Outing, and we also thank those who began this fundraiser so many years ago, so that the trips are able to be funded on such a grand scale, a club tradition that is in it's 50th year! We thank our many sponsors, golfers and helpers along the way. Thank you also to our club manager, Cheryl Schulze, for making our set up and dinner service smooth and enjoyable.
